

EDUBALT ESD REGIONAL ESD COURSE FOR HIGHER EDUCATION
CHANGE PROJECT INFORMATION
Vilnius Žemyna Progymnasium, Lithuania

Change project title: Integration of SD into the school subjects and after-school activities
Project leader(s) (EduBalt participants): Lina Ališauskienė, Irmina Veikutienė
Project participants (EduBalt): Lina Ališauskienė, Irmina Veikutienė
Other project participants (not involved in EduBalt project): members of the project “Sustainable school”
Name of the EduBalt mentor/collaborator: Irmina Veikutienė
Aim of the project: to integrate the principles of SD into the school subjects and after-school activities
Target audience: teachers, students and the whole school community
Expected outcomes: SD principle integration
Significance for the involved institutions (universities): making the school more sustainable
Which sustainable development goals are tackled by the project? Good health and well-being; quality education; sustainable community; partnership for the goals.
Short description of the project: introducing the school community with the principles of SD; planning of the activities for implementing SD in the school; taking real actions.

Implementation plan

Activities	Time	Responsible persons
Coming back after the “EduBalt” workshop and sharing the experience.	March, 2017	Irmina Veikutienė, Lina Ališauskienė
Meeting with the representatives of the Lithuanian Children and Youth Centre.	May, September, 2017	Members of the project “Sustainable school”
Seminars, workshops	September, October, 2017	LCYC, members of the project “Sustainable school”
Self-evaluation	October, 2017	All school community